Remember When . . .

An aerial photograph of the E. E. Smith Senior High School campus in Fayetteville, North Carolina. The image shows several large, modern school buildings with flat roofs and a series of windows. A prominent tall, narrow chimney or tower stands in the center. The campus is surrounded by a parking lot with several cars, and there are trees and other smaller buildings in the background.

FOREWORD

Foreword

As we glance retrospectively at the '62 - '63 school year, we see among us a change in attitude -- a more serious concern for others and an ever maturing concern for ourselves. We met failure and success, sorrow and joy, taking each in stride. We began to toss aside the trinkets of adolescence and to gather and to hold the components of adult-world responsibility which are diligence, perseverance, patience and determination.

In our panoramic portrayal of the year 1962-63, we aim to present vivid, picturesque memories -- in this our SMITHSONIAN.

The Class of '63

DECEMBER 1950

The Past — Our Heritage
The Present — Our Responsibility
The Future — Our Challenge

WITH DEEP ESTEEM, ADMIRATION, DEVOTION AND LOVE, WE
THE MEMBERS OF THE SENIOR CLASS OF 1963, DEDICATE
THIS, THE 1963 SMITHSONIAN, TO YOU.

LIKE A BEACON LIGHT, YOUR RADIANCE SHONE TO GUIDE
US. LIKE THE SCULPTOR WHO MOLDS HIS STONE, YOU MOLD-
ED THE MINDS OF YOUTH. LIKE THE FARMER WHO PLANTS
HIS SEED, YOU PLANTED THE SEEDS OF KNOWLEDGE.

YOU LISTENED AND YOU UNDERSTOOD, YOU HEARD AND YOU SYMPATHIZED, YOU ADVISED AND WE ACKNOWLEDGED.

BECAUSE OF YOU, WE HAVE GROWN . . . . .
MAY GOD EVER BLESS YOU

In Memory of

William Carl Swann

A Message to the Seniors of '63

Congratulations to you on the 1963 Smithsonian. I am sure that in the years to come that it will be a real source of pleasure for you to review your years at Smith.

You, as graduates have completed courses which were designed to equip you with knowledges, abilities and skills which will enable you to continue your education or enter into some phases of employment.

I am sure there is a feeling of regret in leaving your school and the many associations and experiences that it gave you, yet, there is at the same time a pleasant anticipation of a new, rich and successful life ahead.

May you always sing "Smith High We Love Thy Name"

 Bow To Dudley, 67-56
Smith Quintet Ousted
 From 4-A Tournament

GREENSBORO—E. E. Smith's Golden Bulls bowed out of the Negro 4-A High School state championship tournament Thursday night, falling before Dudley of Greensboro, 67-56.

The two clubs battled nip and tuck for three quarters but the battle tide swung decisively to the hometown Panthers in the final segment.

It was 41-41 going into the last stanza. Then Charles Sanders and Everett James developed a hot hand for Dudley and the Panthers were able to slip home without a severe challenge.

Sanders topped all scorers with 24 points while James finished the night with 14.

James Raye sparked Smith's losing cause, burning the nets for 23 points. Roy McNeil supplemented Raye's effort with 14.

Dudley, a favorite to cop the title, found a formidable foe in the Golden Bulls much of the way, and it required a strong finishing kick before the Panthers could shake off the stubborn Smith quint.

Dudley outscored the losers, 26 to 15, in the final quarter.

The defeat concluded the season for coach D. S. Kelly's charge and left them with an 8-9 overall record.

THE LINEUPS

E. E. SMITH (56) — McNeil 14, Wright 7, Gerald, McKinnon, Bennett 8, Foy 1, Raye 23, Oliver 2, Burnes, McCormick.

DUDLEY (67) — James 14, Sanders 24, Henry 10, Pitt 3, Austin 4, Tate 1, Dowdy, Hodges, Turner, Brooks 11.

Halftime score: Dudley 28, Smith 25.

MAKE EVERY OCCASION A GREAT OCCASION

To me a book is a treasured item, my school is also a place and an occasion I shall remember for the rest of my life, therefore, this book The Smithsonian to me is the most important thing in my life.

I would like to thank the members of the class of 1963 for electing me as the Editor of the '63 Smithsonian.

A Message from our President

Roland Edwin Melvin

Presidents Message

My beloved Seniors, yours is an envied position. For you are the Campus Leaders, E. E. Smith Elder Statesmen. To those who follow, you now bequeath a proud heritage.

Three years past, we began together our high school travels, and now the hand of time has cast its hand upon us, we now part, our journey is now at an end.

For two years it has been my privilege and oftentimes task to serve you as your leader and now my administration ends, but your memory, this Class of "63", will always remain dear in my heart, may success follow each and every one of you, and "God Bless you". Farewell.

Your President

Roland E. Melvin
"63"

Class Song

To You, Smith High, Goodbye

Tune of: Smoke Gets In Your Eyes

Dear Smith High School, Goodbye.
We leave with a sigh.
We will never fear,
We know you are near
Year after year.

Though we go separate ways
We're with you always
We will e're be true
Dear Smith High to you
What ever we do.

These few years
We'll never forget
We're so glad we met you Dear.
Through the years
Of many joys and tears
We won't forget you, Dear!

Though we go separate ways
You're with us always.
Knowing we will be
Knowing we will be
Dear Smith High, Goodbye!

Miss Louise Pearson

Class Poem

Dear Smith High, Goodbye
Our hearts inside are aching;
Because we're leaving you.
Our heads are bowed
As we make this vow to you:
Dear Smith High we'll e're be true.
The mem'ries of the joy -
No distance can destroy
We've loved you through
The laughter and the tears
We'll love you through all the years.

Dear Smith High, Goodbye
The road is long before us
But we'll have you always
To be our guide to help us on our way
Forever and a day.
Through joy and through strife
You go with us through life.
We pledge to love thee
Until the day we die.
Dear Smith High School, Goodbye.
